Supporting SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL COMPETENCE in Early Learning

Is your team ready to turn their focus from managing tamariki challenging behaviours to developing systems and strategies for promoting wellbeing and positive behaviour across the whole centre?

Using He Māpuna te Tamaiti come and explore with us the key green zone features in this new resource that will support you to:

- Understand the key messages from the resource
- Explore reflective and inclusive practice
- Create a supportive learning environment
- Focus on strategies that develop emotional and social competence in tamariki
- Understand the 'why' of behaviour
- Bring a reflective inquiring frame of mind through Internal Evaluation to plan for change

Tūngia te ururua kia tupu whakaritorito te tupu o te harakeke.

Clear away the overgrowing bush so that the new flax shoots will spring up. Remove barriers to learning, engagement, and wellbeing so that our mokopuna will flourish

This professional learning programme will enable managers, leaders and kaiako to engage with and challenge their own assumptions and beliefs in relation to intentional teaching of social and emotional competence that is inclusive and culturally response.

Come along and dip into this wonderful resource with us as we aspire to lift kaiako practice and enhance outcomes for tamariki.

When: Thursday 18th February, 8.30am - 1:00pm
Where: La Vida Conference Centre, 34A Hansons Lane, Upper Riccarton, Christchurch
