

KA RERE TE MANU

Building treaty literacy, understanding mātauranga Māori, fostering ongoing cultural competencies, and normalising te reo Māori.

Are you looking to authentically engage with te reo Māori and strengthen bicultural practices but feel apprehensive about getting it wrong?

This professional development opportunity will equip you with the “feathers” necessary to enhance your Cultural Intelligence. Through a series of stories, insights, and practical tools, you will build the capability to soar into spaces where our greatest power lies: our human connections.

This Zoom Series will focus on:

- Building Treaty Literacy - Go beyond the principles and embed the articles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi into policy and practice.
- Understanding mātauranga Māori - Explore it from professional and personal perspectives, viewing it as a “taonga tuku iho” - a treasure handed down from our ancestors.
- Fostering Ongoing Cultural Competencies - Integrate identity, language, and culture into everyday practices.
- Normalising te reo Māori - Implement a planned approach that recognizes your current position and available resources.

Ko te manu e kai ana i te miro nōnā te ngahere, ko te manu e kai ana i te mātauranga nōnā te ao

The bird who feasts on the miro berry owns the forest;
the bird who feasts on knowledge owns the world.

- 4 x 1.25 hour Zoom sessions
- 3.30pm to 5.00pm commencing 13th May 2025
- Availability by phone or email in between sessions, to support ongoing learning

INVESTMENT: $200 + GST per person

My strength lies in bridging Te Ao Māori and Te Ao Pākehā.

Navigating the complexities of biculturalism has been an intriguing journey. In this shared space, creativity flourishes, connections are forged, and insights emerge.
